A BILL

To organize a corps of scouts and signal guards, to facilitate communication with the trans-Mississippi department.

1     SECTION 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do
2     enact, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized, by 3     and with the advice of the Senate, to appoint one colonel, one 4     lieutenant colonel, one major, and ten captains, to do service as 5     “scouts and signal guards,” in the valley of the Mississippi 6     river.

1     SEC. 2. The officers thus commissioned shall have authority to 2     raise, out of those not liable to conscription, ten companies, to 3     be officered by the President, to be composed of such members 4     and such persons as he may approve, whose duty it shall be to 5     do scout and guard duty for Government transportation across 6     the Mississippi river, under such rules and regulations as may 7     be prescribed by the War Department.

1     SEC. 3. The President may detail such officers and men from 2     the army as he may deem peculiarly qualified for the service.

1     SEC. 4. Such "scouts and signal guards" shall be composed
2     either of infantry or cavalry, or in part of both, at the discretion
3     of the President, and furnished and equipped in such manner as 4     will make them most effective, and shall be entitled to the same 5     pay and allowances, and be subject to the same regulations, as 6     other soldiers.
